HONGKONG, DECEMBER 6TH, 1876.

Now that the insurrection in Japan has been quelled, the native journals are asking what will be its effect on the future of the country. and what lessons it ought to teach to the land's mistrust of Russia, and asserted that Government and people. The Choya Shimbun hopes that the samurai, who are the discon. tented class, will see the folly of opposing the Government. It thinks also that the Government may justly feel relieved to a certain extent by the result of the late conflict. But while upholding the Government generally, the Choya Shimbun does not omit to throw out some significant bints. It says the Government will "do well to see that the people cannot be treated with contempt. On the 19th of October an addition was made to the Royal Navy by the launching of the On London .corvette Backanie at Portsmouth. The vessel is iron osed with wood, and will carry sixteen guna . She is 317 feet long. 45 feet broad, and or displacement is 4,010 tone, with a nominal horse power of 700. Her Majesty's ship Tourmaline has been commissioned at Sheerness by Captain Francis W. Sullivan. C.B., who will proceed in her to relieve Sir W. N. W. Hewett, K.C.B., as commodore-in-command of the Cape and West Const of Africa station, the period of service of that officer having expired.

The Army and Navy Gasette enys that Captain G. F. Sulivan, who was recently superseded. n the command of the London at Zanzibar, owing to a disagreement between himself and the chaplain, has accepted the command of the Sirius on the West Coast of Africa, Captain Pringle having been invalided. While againts was being fired on board Her Mujesty's ship Royal Adelaids in Hamoaze on the 26th October. Benry Poneford was a very severely wounded and other men burt by the blowing out of the breech-piece of a cannon, owing to it having been inaufficiently sorewed up. The cononssion destroyed much of the adjacent furniture of the ship, and for a time caused great alarm.

Another armour-plated broadside ship will shortly be added to the Navy, viz., the Welson which has been built and provided with bagines by Mesers, Elder, of Glasgow, Her estimated displacement is 7.323 tons, and borse-power 6.000. Her thickest armoon is nine inches, behind which is a backing of thirteen inches and an inner skin. At present it is intended that she shall carry twelve guns, one-third being

9-inch and two-thirds 7-inch. The repairs to the screw of the almour pluted ship. Alexandra having been completed the vessel has been taken out of the dook and moored in the repairing basin preparatory to going upon her trial triy at the measured mile. Pieces have been out from each of the eight blades of her screw and the edges rounded off. As her bottom has been oleaned during the time she has been in dook, it is expected that she will make a high rate of speed at the trial. trip. Should the trip prove successful it will not be long before the vessel will be ready to Latters recently received from Zanzibar mention a sad disaster to the pinns e of her Majesty's ship Thetis. The boat was coming off from shore, having a gun on board, when she saddenly capsized, and sank instantly, her crew of sixteen being left struggling in the water. Bight of the men could awim, and those gallantly assisted their comrades by giving them oars and other floating objects, but two men, named Lake and Bond, sank finally before being-reached by boats from on board ber Majesty's ships Undaunted, Thelis, and London, from which the disaster was witnessed.

At the Grimaby police court on the 16th

October the Mayor, at the request of the Foreign Office and the Board of Trade, presented John Wright, captain, and Robert Pepper, mate of the fishing outter Young Fanny, of Grimaby the former with a marine t cacepe mounted with silver, and the latter with a gold watch, engraved on the back with the Imperial cypher and grown of Prussis, as gifts from the Emperer of Germany for their humans conduct in saving at great risk three men, the crew of the German schooner Christiana, which wis sinking off the mouth of the Humber on the 5th of Nov., 1875; It is stated that the French frigate the Tourvills which is now ready for trial, will leave far hebind her the Raleigh, the Shah, and the Inconstant. The Tourville, now at Toulon, was built in a private yard at La Seyne, and was is unched on February 24, preceding by a month the floating of her sister-ship, the Duquesne which took the water at Rochefort. Both ressels have been contracted after the plans of STRAW. M. Lebellin de Divine. The frame is of iron, which is covered with teak, which in its turn is coppered. Thronghout the whole length of the Tourville there runs a line, of water-tight compartments, which form a second shell above the. water-line. Including the spur, the length of the Tourville is 105 metres, and her breadth at the water-line 15-25 metres. She will be masted and rigged like the old 60 gun-frigates, and her battery will be three metres from the water, Her armament will consist of twepty-seven 18 centimetre (55 inch) gane. Out of these gans seven will be placed on deck and twenty below

The report of the Sab-Commission appointed by the French Chambers to inquire into the condition of the Merchant Marine comes to conclusions which; if adopted by the Legislative Assembly, to which it has not yet heen presented, may affect the Mercantile Navies of foreign nations: The report sets out with a statement of the doory of Maritime enterprise in France. France lost 150,000 tone in three years, while the tonnings of England, Norway, Italy, and Germany was increasing. It is then inferred that a period of protection is necessary, but it is admitted that the surface de pavillon must remain formally abolished. That admission forms Article 1 of the Sub-Commission's recommendations. Article 2 recommends the payment to shipbuilders of a premium equal to the import duty upon all articles used for the repair or construction of vessels, including timber and machinery. It appears to be beopinion of the Sub-Commission that this premium should be liberally calculated. Article 3 is the most important. It recommends that every shipowner competing with foreigners shall receive as compensation for the suppression of the suriage de pavillon an allowance calculated in relation to tonnage and to time during which his vessel is employed. For vessels which have not been more than nine years affoat the amount of the allowance is to be 2f. per ton. It is to b 1f. 40c, for those which have been 18 years affect; an 1 80c, for vessels which exceed that age. The 4th Article lave down rules for determining the time during which the ship is on active service for the purposes of the bounty. Article 5 limits time during which the system is to be in force to 10 years; and by Article 6 fishing boats and vessels which at present enjoy postal subsidies are excepted from the benefits of the proposed regulations. The first laden merchantman which has attempted to enter the new Extension Works at Postmouth cume to griof in a somewhat singular manner. 4. The following articles onnot be sent by Post at all :- Glass, Liquids, Gunpowder, Maiches, Candles, Soap, Indigo, Dye-stuffs, or whatever is dangerous to the Mails or offensive or injurious to persons dealing with them. The public is reminded that, in Ohina and Japan, there is no such thing as Parcel Post. Much trouble and disappointment is caused by persistent attempts to send small valuable trifles, through the Post, Fans, Ouries, Articles of Dress, Fancy Work, and aimilar presents are continually being refused, the senders baving often spent more in Postage than would have paid the freight by steamer. No refund can be mude on such parcels of the value of Stamps obliterated before the nature of the contents was discovered. tiome difficulty is experienced in obtaining a fied than in the tendency of British charity to seek scenes for its labours at a distance from its own home, and to overlook the claims of those who lie at its very gates. Into the political features of the Bulgarian fever which is now affecting the brain of John Bull, we do not propose here to enter. Whe her the revolted provinces of Turkey are to be in future autonomous or what is to be the policy of our government we do not pretend to advise; but we would point out the anomaly that apart from every day misery in London and other cities of England, the sufferers by the late Thunderer explusion are still left unpro-	THIS Work, in the FOURTEENTH year of its existence, is NOW READY FOR SALE. thousands are acknowledged by the Lord Mayor for the relief of the Bulgarian peasanty. If these latter had equal moral claims upon our consideration to those who suffer through service to us and our country, we should even in that case maintain that until our nearer relatives, nationally speaking, and direct co-religionists, have been provided for, it is sparious sympathy to devote our spare cash to those less near in blood and less bound by identity of religion to ourselves. But we would go further, and point cut that great though the ordinary soutane, with lake sleeves but to need from clow to wrist, and around the neck, descending to the shoulders, a bavarette or close-fitting pelerine. upon our return to Kamarlou when we passed an Armenian bridal procession, ac companied by a crowd of the male sex. The bride was scated on a horse led by four men, astride an enormous cushion of yellow silk; she was followed by her ather, also mounted, with a youthful son behind him, and the rear was brought up by musicians playing upon the zourna, a short fife which conits a most unmusical sound, and beating the nahara, a drum, by way of accompanient; there was no attempt at melody, for the players blew and beat their without any intermission. There was readened by a crowd of the male sex. The transfer audiences. As we see by this, white is the distinguishing color of the chastity of morals, and eminence of virtues. Before the usurpation of the States of the Church and the compation of Home by the training in 1870, the Holy Father went out every day for any hour or two in his carriage accompanied generally by one or two car dinals. Coming to a quiet part of the road outside the city, they would alight from their and beat their without any intermission.	The present Volume also contains a Lily Directory of Singapore.
